

Vintage & Craft Workshops

- 15 October Paint a Black Cockatoo with Jacky Morris
Full day painting workshop painting a black cockatoo 50cm x 60cm
10.00 am – 3.00 pm @ 72 George Street, The George Hotel, Millicent
Cost: $138.24 includes materials, tuition and Eventbrite booking fee.
Second generation artist and teacher, learn to paint a black cockatoo on canvas. Morning and afternoon tea provided.
- 15-16 October Threads & Thimbles exhibition
10.00 am – 3.00 pm @ 17-19 Nilsson Street, Rendelsham (Hall)
Enquiries: Kathy Patten 0438 013 372.
- 16 October Charming Circles patchwork workshop
Learn the traditional art of patchwork at this workshop
10.00 am – 4.00 pm @ Ridge Terrace, Millicent Public Library
Cost: $80.00 includes ruler, pattern and tuition.
To book contact Julie Wesolowski 0428 189 965 by 9th September.
- 16 October Paint and sip class—paint a Cow
Part of the Jacky Morris Painting workshops collection
10.00 am – 12.30 pm @ 72 George Street, The George Hotel, Millicent
Cost: $69.66 includes materials, tuition and Eventbrite booking fee.
Second generation artist and teacher, Jacky Morris has a passion for rural Australia. Learn to paint a cow. Morning and afternoon tea inc.
- 16 October Paint & Stitch with the two Julies
Paint watercolour with Julie Kent and stitch with Julie McEwen
10.00 am – 4.00 pm @ Ridge Terrace, Millicent Public Library
Cost: $64.39 provide your own materials. Eventbrite booking fee inc.
(purchase of kits on the day is possible for additional cost)
- 16 October Millicent IMAG Mural & Sculpture walk
10.20 am – 11.30 am @ Millicent Visitor Information Centre
Cost: Donation towards IMAG next mural.
- 16 October Millicent Museum OPEN DAY
Largest display of horse drawn vehicles in Australia. Local history.
Free entry all day. 9.00 am – 4.00 pm
1 Mount Gambier Road, Millicent Visitor Information Centre
Cost: FREE.

 geltwoodfestival

The Geltwood Festival

The Geltwood Festival Official Opening

Friday 14th October 6.30pm–8.00pm @ Millicent Art Gallery
All welcome! Drinks and canapes provided. No RSVP required.

Model Train Exhibition

Saturday 15th & Sunday 16th October 10.00am–3.00pm @ Millicent RSL Hall
Gold coin donation. Come along and see some amazing model trains on display.

Ignite your Imagination—by IMAG: Imagine Millicent

Saturday 15th October 7.00pm–10.30pm
@ Ignition Fitness, enter via Davenport Street, Millicent
$25 head includes glass of beer/wine and grazing box, Dj. A cocktail party with a difference.

The Lions Family & Market Day

Sunday 16th October 9.00am–1.00pm @ George Street, Millicent
Numerous stalls, fresh local produce, homemade goods, tasty treats, art and crafts, live music.

Quilting Convention

Monday 17th October 9.30am–3.00pm Millicent Civic and Arts Centre
$20 head includes morning and afternoon tea.
RSVP to Julie Wesolowski 0428 189 965 to secure your seat/table. Guest speakers, light entertainment and 'show and tell'. Over 250 quilts on display in Millicent precinct.

For more festival information visit:
www.geltwoodfestival.com

BOOKINGS ESSENTIAL for Eventbrite ticketed workshops visit www.eventbrite.com (search Millicent)

Vintage & Craft Workshops

4 September How to 'Hexie' workshop

Learn the traditional art of patchwork hexagons. A great introduction
10.00 am – 1.00 pm
31b George Street, 'Habit Patch' Millicent

Cost: $11.64 includes own kit, tuition and Eventbrite booking fee.
Karen Duncan will share her passion and knowledge to create your own "Hexie".

11 September How to make Apple Cider & Kombucha at home

This amazing workshop will cover apple cider, followed by kombucha
10.00 am – 12.00 pm
1 Mount Gambier Road, Millicent Visitor Information Centre

Cost: FREE. Book through Eventbrite.
Hosted by passionate local foodies. All equipment and materials will be supplied. Apple cider workshop will be facilitated by Ben Gower with tricks to make your own cider from scratch with apples, followed by tasting. Kombucha workshop will be facilitated by Emma Clay. Take home your own Kombucha "mother" or "mushroom", symbiotic culture of bacteria and yeast (SCOBY) to create your own Kombucha tea using local and seasonal produce.

17 September Stained Glass workshop

Create your own 5-piece stained glass 'peace dove'
9.00 am – 3.00 pm
Millicent RSL Hall, North Terrace, Millicent

Cost: FREE. Book through Eventbrite.
Brian Sims will share his decades of stained glass craftsmanship experience with participants. By the end of the workshop to achieve your dove, you will complete the steps including designing, glass selection, cutting the glass, grinding, copper foiling and soldering.

18 September Stained Glass workshop

Create your own 5-piece stained glass 'peace dove'
9.00 am – 3.00 pm
Millicent RSL Hall, North Terrace, Millicent

Cost: FREE. Book through Eventbrite.
Brian Sims will share his decades of stained glass craftsmanship experience with participants. By the end of the workshop to achieve your dove, you will complete the steps including designing, glass selection, cutting the glass, grinding, copper foiling and soldering.

25 September Basket Weaving for youth (12-17 yrs)

Simple coiled baskets. Ghost rope stitched. Decorate with beach debris
11.00 am – 12.00 pm
Ridge Terrace, Millicent Public Library

Cost: $11.64 includes materials, tuition and Eventbrite booking fee.
Join Chrissy for a fun filled session. Local artist Chrissy Pudney will guide you through the process of making these colourful coiled baskets.

25 September Basket Weaving workshop

Working with abandoned, lost or discarded fishing ropes and nets
1.00 pm – 2.30 pm
Ridge Terrace, Millicent Public Library

Cost: $27.46 includes materials, tuition and Eventbrite booking fee.
Colourful ropes stitched together to become a unique basket. Local artist Chrissy Pudney will guide you through the process of making coiled baskets. Participants will have the option of stitching with bought yarn or for the more competent she will teach you how to re-use baling twines for stitching.

02 October Crochet workshop

Learn two basic crochet stitches, then make a granny square
11.00 am – 1.30 pm
1 Mount Gambier Road, Millicent Visitor Information Centre

Cost: $6.36 includes materials, tuition and Eventbrite booking fee.
Local crochet artist, Chris Parmenter will teach 2 basic crochet stitches, then you will make a granny square. Granny squares are popular for garments as well as re-usable shopping bags. 4mm crochet hook inc.

09 October Come and learn 'Boro' stitch

Create a reusable diary cover from recycled materials and boro stitch
1.00 pm – 4.00 pm
Fifth Street, Millicent Craft Centre

Cost: FREE. Book through Eventbrite.
Passionate, local sewer Emilia Tidy and friends at the Millicent Craft Centre will teach you how to create your own reusable diary cover from recycled and preloved materials, decorated with colourful patterned Boro stitch. Diary, materials, threads and afternoon tea provided.

15 October Hex 'n' More patchwork workshop

Learn the traditional art of patchwork at this workshop
10.00 am – 4.00 pm @ Ridge Terrace, Millicent Public Library

Cost: $80.00 includes ruler, pattern and tuition.
To book contact Julie Wesolowski 0428 189 965 by 9th September.

